What is The Sacred Priestess Journey™?

This 6-month initiatory shamanic path for women is a call from our highest self to connect to our inner wisdom, step into our power, and activate our own spiritual authority.

The Journey is deep and courageous work to remove obstacles so we may live in tune with our true nature and step fearlessly into our lives. This process helps us understand the shadows we carry, our relationships with ourselves and others, enhances our intuition, brings awareness to our life purpose.

"The Priestess and Magdalene journeys have changed my life forever and I would recommend it to any woman that is ready to step into her power and discover the many jewels hidden beneath her shadows. I laughed, I cried, I danced, and moved energy in ways that facilitated the final push needed in order to remove the last dredges of past traumas from my life forever. Once these shadows were released, I was able to step fully into my power as a Sacred Shamanic Priestess/Magdalene." ~Kaw, Indianapolis

This process is for women at all stages of inner work, beginner and seasoned seeker alike; there is always something to be revealed at a deeper level if we allow Ourselves the space, time, and energy for it to birth.
